Pull the strap located near the headrest to unlock the seat's backrest. Then, fold the split backrest.

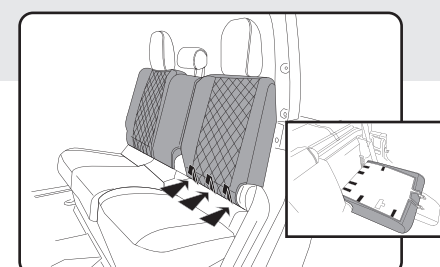

- To start, split the 60/40 backrest and remove the middle seat headrest. Then, pull out the seatbelt and place the Backrest 60 Side over the 60/40 split.

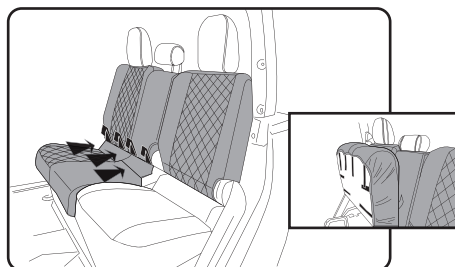

- Secure the seat cover around the headrest base by attaching the hook-and-loop patches to the seat's upholstery. Once finished, reattach the middle headrest.

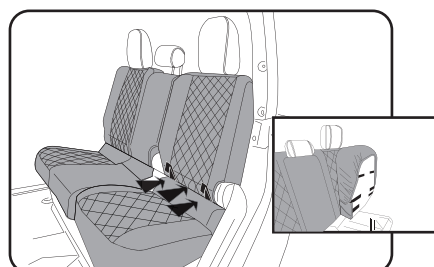

- Once the backrest cover is on, push the hook-and-loop straps (indicated by the arrows) through the crevice of the seat and attach them directly to the seat's upholstery. We recommend splitting the car seat for this step.

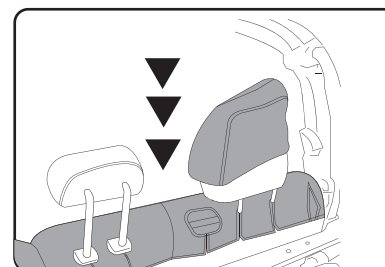

- Place the backrest 40 side on and push the hook-and-loop straps through the seat crevice and attach them directly to the upholstery of the backseats.

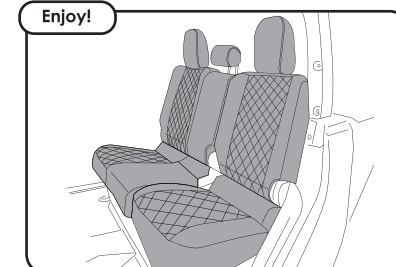

- Place the bottom cover 60 side on the seat following the seat's shape. Then, push the hook-and-loop straps through the seat crevice and attach them directly to the upholstery of the seat. Make sure you split the bottom seat as this will make the process easier.
